LAHY UHN

WHITFIELD KOFFI Jean-François Boris, better known as LAHY-UHN (pronounced "Lion" in English), was born on July 15, 1990 in Cocody, Ivory Coast. He is the first of three children, to a musician father, WHITFIELD KOFFI Justin and seamstress mother, AHOUADJIRO Valérie.

He is bilingual singer, musician, writer, composer, and performs internationally in both French and English.

In the 2000s, thanks to the guitar lessons he received from his father, he became passionate about Reggae music and began performing live throughout Jamaica City and Parker Place in Abidjan (Ivory Coast).

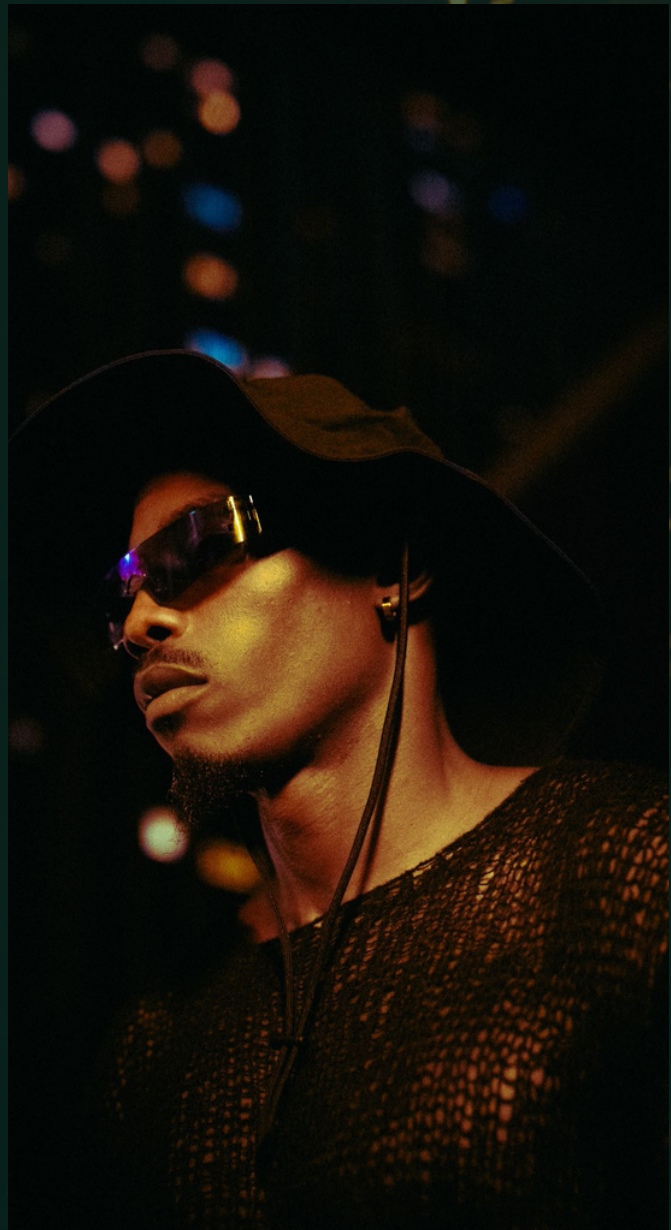

During the four years he lived in the USA, he added Rap to his skill set. This became an important inspiration in his musical journey.

Now residing in Chartres, France, LAHY-UHN, "the multifaceted nugget" has a public catalogue of four singles that encompass the sounds of Dance-hall, Rap, Drill, Trap and Afropop.

"The multifaceted nugget"

The artist's natural talent, his passion for music, and his attraction for quality work pushed him to improve his style and explore other musical universes that fuel his inspiration.

To date, after rich performance experience, LAHY-UHN has seen his style evolve and mature over time. The last two of his four singles were accompanied by visuals and have made media appearances on television, radio, and major streaming platforms.

We've unlocked an artist in constant evolution, with an adaptability that shows signs of global/universal reach.

The artist's long-term vision to conquer the world of music has been a real catalyst for his and improvement. He has developed a robust collection of songs, in various styles, waiting to be gradually released, in strategic timing.

In addition to his musical prowess, he is also an actor, model, and experienced athlete in the practice of football, basketball, table tennis, taekwondo and muay-thai.

DISCOGRAPHY

12/05/2021 | Crazy Vybz
[Single available in audio]

Freshly landed in France, after time spent in the United States of America, LAHY-UHN wrote Crazy Vybz in mixed feelings of frustration and disconcertment toward the music industry. The system's requirement to fit a certain mold/trend was impossible to finance. LAHY-UHN, "the man of phonetics," embarked on a renegade mission by blending English and Malinké to create an innovative version of Trap music.

21/10/2022 | Story
[Single available in audio and video]

Story presents a growing and confident LAHY-UHN. This freestyle recording was based on two sentences: "Learn from the bottom. Grind to the top." These two simple sentences are enough to define the artist's history and illustrate his ascension, despite any missed victories from earlier in his life. LAHY-UHN has learned from the ground up and is growing towards the top.

30/12/2022 | Combination

[Single available in audio and video]

This single, under the sounds of rhythmic dance hall, supports the declaration of LAHY-UHN being a "multifaceted nugget." It serves as his entrance to the great family of Afropop.

14/10/2023 | Feel Free
